12 vs.

13 US Airline Pilots Ass'n, et al.

14 Defendants.

No. CV-13-00471-PHX-PGR

ORDER

16 Pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' Motion for Entry of Default Judgment
17 by the Court Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2), filed April 8, 2013, wherein the plaintiffs 18 seek default judgment against defendant US Airline Pilots Ass'n ("USAPA") for its 19 alleged failure to timely respond to the complaint. Having reviewed the motion, 20 the Court finds that it should be summarily denied.

21 First, the motion is procedurally improper. There is a two-step procedure 22 under Fed.R.Civ.P. 55 for obtaining a default judgment that the plaintiffs have 23 inexplicably failed to follow. Under that procedure, the plaintiffs may not seek the 24 entry of a default judgment from the Court pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) without first 25 seeking through a separate application, and obtaining, the entry of default from 26 the Clerk of the Court pursuant to Rule 55(a). Although the plaintiffs state that

1 the declaration of their counsel filed with their motion “establishes the procedural 2 elements required by Fed.R.Civ.P. 55(b)(2)[,]” the declaration does nothing to 3 establish that the plaintiffs have complied with Rule 55(a), nor does anything else 4 in the record.

5 Second, the motion is improper because the Court concludes that USAPA 6 is not in any case currently in default. According to the plaintiffs, USAPA had to 7 answer or otherwise respond to the complaint by April 4, 2013, but USAPA timely 8 filed a motion on March 22, 2013 seeking an extension of time to answer or 9 otherwise respond to the complaint until May 6, 2013 and that motion is currently 10 pending. The timely filing of that motion stays USAPA’s answer date until such 11 time as the Court provides in its resolution of the motion. Therefore,

12 IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiffs’ Motion for Entry of Default Judgment by the 13 Court Pursuant to Rule 55(b)(2) (Doc. 34) is denied.

14 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that US Airline Pilots Association’s Motion for 15 Extension of Time to File Response to Plaintiff’s Motion to Transfer Case and to 16 Answer or Otherwise Move With Respect to the Complaint (Doc.9) is granted to 17 the extent that defendant US Airline Pilots Association shall answer or otherwise 18 respond to the complaint no later than April 22, 2013.¹

19 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all future documents filed in this action
20 must be captioned according to the party capitalization requirement of LRCiv
21 7.1(a)(3) (“Party names must be capitalized using proper upper and lower case

25 The Court deems USAPA’s response to the plaintiffs’ motion to 26 transfer, which it filed on April 5, 2013, to have been timely filed since the Court would have granted it an extension until April 22, 2013 to file its response.
